
Counseling Ministry

Buttafleye Ministry

Ministry Mission:

To offer human kindness to all who arrive at the church: One to one, face to face, hand to hand, and heart to heart.

Ministry Vision:

Seeking counsel is the first thing people do when they need help. The ministry counselors are dedicated, to set a positive tone for those seeking counsel. A positive tone for a blessed, spiritual counseling experience.

Ministry Scripture Reference:

"Without counsel, plans fail, but with many advisers, they succeed." – Proverbs 15:22

Ministry Description /Purpose:

Biblical counseling is a type of counseling that focuses on a person's spiritual side. There are a couple of reasons why a person may consider spiritual counseling. First of all, they may seek out spiritual counseling to explore or solidify their personal spiritual beliefs. Some people might also seek out the guidance of spiritual counselors when they need help solving other problems in their lives.

Spiritual gifts, skills, and, traits desired for people considering serving in this ministry:

- Must be dedicated
- Must have a warm personality and open heart
- Must have the ability to relate to and communicate
